

First performed 13 December 1933 in observance of our church's 100th Anniversary, this play written by Frank Heint describes a few of the events that /may have/ taken place the day before our founding.

Script found here \(pdf\)